should the story of a country town find readers it may be interesting to them to know that it was written entirely at night after the writer had finished a hard day s work as editor and publisher of a small evening newspaper i do not think a line of it was written while the sun was shining but in almost every chapter there are recollections of the midnight bell no one can possibly find more fault with it than i have found myself a hundred times i have been on the point of burning the manuscript and never attempting it again for i was always tired while working at it and always dissatisfied after concluding an evening s work i offer this as a general apology for its many defects and can only hope it will meet with the charity it deserves
